FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DILLON (April 4, 2005) – In conjunction with Montana Archaeology Week, Mark Sant, archaeologist for the Bureau of Land Management, will present a program about the investigation of the Red Butte rifle pits in southwest Montana. The public is invited to attend this free presentation on Wednesday, April 13, 7:00 pm at the Dillon Field Office conference room, 1005 Selway Drive in Dillon.

Red Butte is located in the Horse Prairie area south of Dillon and is sometimes referred to as Lion's Butte.

Information was gathered during the 2004 field season through a partnership with BLM and the Montana Archaeological Association. For more information, contact Mark Sant at 683-8033.
